Kellner. Anno domini M. D. XXCIX.

S. P.

Quod Musica celestis sit originis & singulari Dei munere mortalibus ad laudes suas decantandas concessa, Venerabiles, Generosi, Nobiliss. Prudentissimiq; viri, nemo sanus ullo unq; tempore diffitebitur. Quotiescunq; enim regius ille Psalter domino canticū cantari, quoties in sanctis eum laudari, in hymnis iubilationis celebrari eum præcipit, quoties in chordis, organo & cythara psalli illi iubet, toties Musices usum nobis commendat, cuius rei sexcenta, si res postularer, in medium adduci possent testi- onia. E contra vero quando deus scelera hominum vindicare voluit, inter alia Musicam etiam & lætitiā ab ea prouenientem ab illis amouit, vt testatur Esai- as 24. Qui transgressi sunt leges mutauerunt ius, dissipauerunt sœdus sempiternum; Ideo ingemuerunt omnes qui lætabantur corde: cessauit gaudium tympanorum, quieuit sonitus lætantium, conticuit dulcedo cytharæ: Cum cantico nō bibent vinū, amara erit potio bibentibus illā: Clamor erit super vino, in plateis, deserta est ōnis lætitia, translātū est gaudiū terræ. Et Ezechiel 26. Quiescere faciam multitudinē canticorum tuorum, & sonitus cythararū tuarum non audietur amplius. Ad hanc autē diuinā artem, quā tandem refluuisse non sine magno gaudio boni quicq; videmus, ab incunabilis statim toto animi impetu ferebar, & quamprimum per ætatem licebat, oracula sa- cra harmonicis numeris includere tentabam: In imitatione verō optimos quōsq; artifices mihi proponebam, vesti- gijs eorundem insistens, etiam si felicitatem eandem assequi semper non contigerit. Proinde cantiones meas alio- rum iudicio & censuræ subijcio, non tamen, quos incitua sua intra crepidam consistere iubet, sed μουσικώτατον, & eo- rum quidem, quorum iudicium odio & inuidiā non impeditur: Et quicquid adulterinum in iisdem occurrerit, il- lud non modo non ferant, sed explodant & reſciant volo. Ipse etiam si quicquid vnquam tale agnouero, eius παλινωδῶν sine omni tergiversatione canam. Vestris autem generositatibus & Fr. hasce cantiunculas, quas qua- si præcursores reliquarum esse volo, dedico, non ideo, quod vel luceolum spectem, vel laudis atq; famæ admodum cupidus sim, sed vt meæ in officio meo diligentia & fidei testes sint, quas vbi gratas vobis esse sensero, dabo ope- ram, vt & reliquæ, quæ adhuc intra priuatos latent parietes, non immaturo partu (vt spero) à Melpomene editæ, aliquando in publicum prouideant. Val. Muticæ Dab. Anno Christi 1589. die Aprilis 19. quo ante annos 29. Dn. Philippus Melanthon, vir sempiterna laude dignus, ex terrena in celestem commigrauit Academiam.
