

Song

My Sister! Oh! My Sister

Written by
J. D. Reid, Esq.

Presented to His Sister

Music Composed by
L. Thayer Chadwick

Andantino affettuoso

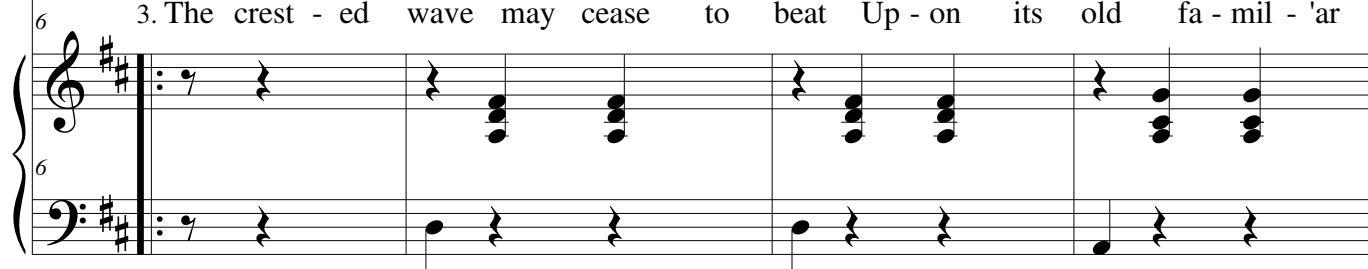

6

D A7

1. I love to watch the moon - beams play, By night, up - on the trem - bling
2. I've loved, when mirth had flushed her heart, To tease from thence a gen - tle
3. The crest - ed wave may cease to beat Up - on its old fa - mil - 'ar

10

D A/E E

lake To hear the shep - herd's war - bling lay, At eve the wood - land ech - o sigh; And as the glist - 'ning tear would start, To kiss it off and ask her, shore: The sum - mer hide her glow - ing heat, And e'en the flow'rs may bloom no

©1843

Edited by Robert A. Hudson
6/29/2013

My Sister! Oh! My Sister

14 A A7 D

wake. But dear - er far than pearl or star, Or "why?" And then her smile so free from guile, To more! Yet still with - in this heart of mine Each 14

17 A7 Rall. D Bm

eve - ning's gen - tle _____ whis - per; Like soft - est mu - sic heard a - me would soft - ly _____ whis - per; That I might com - pass man - y a throb - bing pulse would whis - per, Some note of love for all _____ man -

17 Rall.

20 F# A/E E7(omit 5) A con moto. D

far, Is thy sweet _____ voice, my sis - ter!
 mile, Nor meet with one like my sis - ter: How dull and drear would life ap - kind, — But most for _____ thee, my sis - ter!

20

24 A7 G D/A A7 D

pear, Wert not for thee, Thrice dear to me, My sis-ter, Oh! my sis-ter.

29

29 G A \flat 7 D/A D